Warden Leonard Upsets the Wife's Plans for Burial.

HER APPEAL TO OFFICIALS

The Keeper of the Jatl Declines to Agree to Turn Over the Remains After the Execution to the Undertaker Named by Mrs. Ford-Mr. Harmon to Decide the Question.

An uncanny fight is in progress today over the forencoming corpse of Irvin L. Ford, the murderer of Elsie Kreglo, who will be executed at the part on Francy fore-

As an outcome of this contest over Ford's As a noncome of this cances over Fords, body a pithy communication was handed to Attorney teneral Harmon at monitoral by Attorney Fountain Peyton, the legal tepresentative of Mrs. Ford.

It appears that yesterday sile handed to large H. Winstein

James H. Winslow, a colored undertaker, an order on Warden Leonard, directing him an order on warden Leonard, directing him to turn the remains over to Winslow for burial as 8000 as the hanging is over. Mrs. Ford employed Winslow, she having re-ceived a number of contributions to be ap-plied to the burial of her husband. Several colored societies of which friends of Lers are members had decided that Ford st are members had decided that Ford should at least have a respectable bornal, for the sake of his family.

When Undertaker Winslow presented Mrs. Ford's order for the corpse to Warden Leonard today, he was informed that he could not have the remains until after they had been transfer or the least transfer or

MRS. FORD INDIGNANT.

Winslow went back to Mrs. Ford and reported the matter to her. She was indignant at the warden's refusal, and at once conferred with Lawyer Feynon.

The attorney called on Mr. Leomard at the city hall and asked why he had refused to turn the body of Ford over to Eudertaker Winslow. Leonard repiled that Undertaker Harvey had a contract with the government for burshing longrent prisoners who are harvey had a contract with the government for barying indigent prisoners who are executed at the jail, and that the family could not have the corpse until they rerectived it from Mr. Harvey's hands.

"The body will be turned over to him and taken to ins establishment," added the warden, "and the family must get it from there." Lawyer Peyton protested that Mrs. Ford old not want her husband buried as a Petitions for writs of habeas corpus were filed before Judge Cole this afternoon in the railroad cases that came up before Judge Kimball in police court this mora-ing. The petitions were on behalf of George R Kimble an engineer on the Balti-more and Ohio railroad, and Francis T. Bowler, an engineer on the Baltimore and Potomac rollroad.

After appearing in the police court, by agreement with the listrict authorities. Judge Kimbail sentenced them to the work-house. It is the object of the railroads to bring about a decision from the court of appeals on the question of the validity of the recent regulation of the Commissioners the recent regulation of the Commissioners concerning the stopping of railway trains. The Commissioners adopted a regulation requiring all trains to stop at least forty feet before a resing city streets traversed by cable or electric cars. The railway companies brought an injunction suit against the Commissioners to prevent an enforceof the regulation. Judge Cox heard dismissed the suit. The points of argument given during the hearing, and reported in The Times, were repeated in the application for writs of habeas corpus. Judge Cole will hear preliminary arguments in the case today and will doubtless fix bail for the defeatent.

Well-Known Washington Burglar Confined in a Baltimore Asylum Information was received at police headquarters today that Andrew Sherwood, a burglar and ab-around thief, recently in-dicted here for a house-breaking lob, has ecome a raving maniac in Baltimore and was yesterday incarcerated in Bayview Asylum there.

Asylum there.

The crime he is alleged to have committed here was the burghary of William F. Cantield's house on Seventh street southwest, the case being in the hands of Detectives Poyd, Helan and Lacer. While awaiting trial in the District fail, Sherwood became norse and electric actions of the contract of the contr came morose and gloomy, and District At-torney Birney noile prossed the charge against him. He returned to Bultimore, and yesterday was found on the streets violently insane.

Sherwood was a desperate criminal, and, in police parlance, could never be taken "with his hands down." He was a fighter and second-story burglar. One of his specialties was to enter stores by means of the transoms. On account of this class of work Detective Horne nicknamed bim" Tra Andy," and it has stuck to him as in alias.
